		with your hand.
	49	I'm just asking.
	R	No, no.
	49	She says at the very end the last thing I want to talk to you about what she said is that she said you said to her don't think about telling your story because they're not going to believe you. They will believe me. Don't even think about going to the Police.
	R	This is what I said or what she said what I said?
	49	This is what you've said to her.
	R	I don't understand that but no I didn't say that.
	49	It followed a scenario where you'd been watching the news or something you were at Stokewood Road by now. One evening watching the news it had come about somebody being sexually abused a Court case going on and it was reported in the news that they'd said something about a step father and you were shouting and screaming at the TV jumping out of your chair saying oh yeah it's always the step father it's always the step father.
	R	No, no. I'm sorry that didn't happen.
12.47	2148	Just two things going back a bit just about in Tracey's account there which has just been read out she mentions the dressing gown and you said you were colour blind in reference to the colour.
	R	Yes.
