- CD Okay. All right.
- FLEUR So ...
- CD I think that's important that you, you've actually sort of said that, um, because, you know, it's ...
- FLEUR I've never wanted to speak about it, it's, um, it's just something that happened and that's that, you know. That's how I've dealt with it all this time.

CD Okay. Okay. But then if I can go back to the, well the incident, the incident that happened when you were lying on the sofa, has that kind of been, did that happen just on that occasion?
- FLEUR Yeah.
- CD So it happened to you twice ...
- FLEUR As far as, yeah.
- CD ... but on the sofa and on the bed ...
- FLEUR That's right, yeah.
- CD ... and as far as you can recall ...
- FLEUR I can't, no.
- CD ... that's the only time that that has happened. Okay. All right. Is there anything else that happened at Portland Road that you want to tell me about?
- FLEUR There was lots of sort of, mind playing games, I mean, I don't know how far you want to go into that, but ...

CD No, no, just, yeah, just tell me, explain, 'cause it might ...
- FLEUR I was never allowed friends round to the house, um, I was never allowed sleepovers, or anything like that.
- CD Yeah.
- FLEUR Um, I didn't so much perceive that as abnormal at the time, I just sort of thought, "Well mum and dad work from home, um, it's boring round my house anyway, you know, I'd prefer to be out around my friends house." So it was never
