- FLEUR Of course at this stage, before that me and Tracey were thinking, "Well is she going to believe us, you know, we've been told not to say anything all these years now what's going to happen, they're going to end up divorced, you know, what's going to happen, what are we doing." Um, but obviously we did go through with it.
- CD Mmm.
- 11 24 43 FLEUR Um, and, yeah I suppose after about a year and a half they actually went to court and we had to, we had to give statements in a family court.
- CD Mmm.
- FLEUR Um, obviously not as in depth as what we've done today.
- CD Yeah.
- FLEUR It was just so that the judge could see, I think to decide whether mum had grounds to divorce him on his unreasonable behaviour.
- CD Right.
- FLEUR I can't really remember what the terms were, but ...
- CD Yeah.
- FLEUR ... that were done. But, yeah, we did have to, um, appear in court, in the family court, and the judge found us to be telling the truth, and awarded mum with everything and him nothing.
- CD Okay.
- 11 25 23 FLEUR Um, so we thought, "Right done, you know, time to get on with life for real now, and help mum build her life back up, and get back on her feet." Um, and just basically get on with life and have a nice happy life, and you know, never have to think of this again. But since then we've been, my sister's been receiving emails, he's put this website up and running, um, where he's slating all of us, and he's got some horrific, horrific stuff on there. He's got pictures of my nephew on there, um, I'm sure he's mentioned my daughter's Bebo account which I've now banned her from. Um, there was just, sort of, something that he had put on his
