

RESTRICTED

- TRACEY Um, yeah, so Fleur was a couple of years younger than me.
- CD Yeah, that's right, sorry. I'm sorry to interrupt you ...
- TRACEY No, that's okay.
- CD ... just that we hadn't covered that bit so ...
- TRACEY That's okay.
- 10 28 30 CD So, it would be, kind of, putting some perspective on it.
- TRACEY Yeah.
- CD When we're talking about Fleur and you and, okay. So you, you moved into 80 Portland Road in, in 1982 about, about September, October time, you think, after having spent about six months at Bramshaw Gardens.
- TRACEY Yeah, weren't long at Bramshaw Gardens, he hated living there and, um, he was stressed the whole time.
- CD Okay.
- TRACEY Um, we were, I think we, I think we'd only been in the house for about six weeks, it was a brand new house.
- CD Mmm.
- TRACEY It was, um, a brand new development, I think we'd only be there about six weeks before the 'For Sale' board went up.
- CD Oh right, okay.
- TRACEY And then we moved, um, shortly after, you know, everything sorting out. I can remember the person that bought the house wanted to get in sooner and he'd put all his boxes in one of the spare rooms, um, before we'd vacated the property.
- 10 29 35 CD Yeah.
- TRACEY And then we moved to Portland Road and we were there, oh, we were there for, for a long time at Portland Road.
- CD Okay. You mentioned at the very start (inaudible) about, sort of, Christmas time your mum said, "New start, new school, new name." And I asked you if she'd married James
