

Certificate of Readiness

Regina-v-	James Colton	Case Number:	T20097078
Trial Date:	9th November 2009	URN:	55CN0385009
Crown Court Case Progression Officer:		FIONA DAVIES

Please return this certificate to the court in order to confirm this case is ready for trial and that efforts to settle the case have been made in advance of the trial date. In particular the Defence are asked if the not guilty pleas entered are to be maintained and the Prosecution are asked to ensure whether proper consideration has been given to part guilty or alternative pleas.

The certificate should be returned to the court at least 14 days before the trial date namely:

NB: If you have any problems regarding witnesses or evidence or any issues that may affect the trial, the certificate still needs to be returned by the above date. Failure to return the Certificate of Readiness at least 14 days before the trial date may result in the case being listed for mention in order for parties to show why directions have not been complied with. This may result in a wasted costs order being made.

Please indicate a yes or no answer to each of the questions detailed below by way of an X giving as much detail as possible in the space provided:

Have all parties complied with the directions in the case?	Yes	No
Are there any problems with witnesses?	Yes	No
If applicable, has the witness watched their video evidence? If no, please state the reason and confirm the date when the video will be watched:	Yes	No
Are you waiting for anything from the other side?	Yes	No
Are the other side waiting for anything from you?	Yes	No
Are there any points of law to be dealt with?	Yes	No
Are there any new applications to be made?	Yes	No
Does this case need to be listed for a mention before trial?	Yes	No	